Housing Authority Receives Seven Awards of Merit

Los Angeles – The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) is pleased to announce that it is the recipient of seven Awards of Merit from the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO).

The Awards of Merit were awarded to the following:

- Wellness Station at Pueblo Del Rio
- Value-Driven Budgeting Process
- Del Rey Square
- Partnering for the Future
- Holiday Concert in Nickerson Gardens
- Moving on from Shelter Plus Care to Section 8
- Tenant Based Supportive Housing Program

HACLA has also been nominated for a National Awards of Excellence for three (3) of its programs/services: Wellness Station at Pueblo Del Rio, Value-Driven Budgeting Process and Del Rey Square. NAHRO's Awards of Excellence is given to "recognize outstanding innovation and achievement in housing and community development programs throughout the country."

About HACLA

The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) was established in 1938 by City of Los Angeles Resolution No. 1241. HACLA has grown to become one of the nation's largest and leading public housing authorities, providing the largest supply of quality affordable housing to residents of the City of Los Angeles.

About NAHRO

The National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials, established in 1933, is a membership organization of 23,000 housing and community development agencies and professionals throughout the United States whose mission is to create affordable housing and safe, viable communities that enhance the quality of life for all Americans, especially those of low- and moderate-income. NAHRO's members provide housing for more than 7.9 million low-income people.
