HACLA Anticipates to Rank as a High Performer for 11th Year

LOS ANGELES – The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) has completed its annual program performance review under the Section Eight Management Assessment Program (SEMAP), as required by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). HACLA’s Board of Commissioners approved HACLA’s 2018 SEMAP Certification for submission to HUD. HACLA projects an overall score of 145 out of 145 points for FY 2018, which at 100% equates to a "High Performer" designation. HACLA's perfect score of 100% for 2018 will mark the fourth (4th) perfect score it has received in the last 11 years.

HACLA administers one of the largest Section 8 Programs in the country. SEMAP is a “report card” for public housing agencies (PHAs) who administer the Housing Choice Voucher Program (Section 8). The review assesses PHA’s quality control system with respect to compliance with program requirements and program management. SEMAP provides procedures for HUD to identify Housing Authorities’ management capabilities and deficiencies in order to target monitoring and program assistance more effectively. Housing Authorities use the SEMAP performance analysis to assess and improve their own program operations.

“Over 50,000 families depend on Section 8 rental assistance. We are pleased that our agency continues to be recognized for its successful management and administration of the Section 8 program to our residents,” said HACLA President and CEO Douglas Guthrie. “I am proud of HACLA’s staff for being a critical force that contributes to this agency’s outstanding accomplishment.”

The SEMAP measures PHAs performance based on 14 program indicators to assess whether PHAs help eligible families to afford decent rental units at a reasonable subsidy cost as intended by Federal housing legislation. The comprehensive indicators are a rigorous review of all aspects of a PHA’s operation of a Section 8 program, including applicant waitlist and leasing, participant examinations, Housing Quality Standards (HQS Inspections) and policies and standards. The indicators are scored electronically by HUD and by internal audit and document review.
