Housing Authority Receives 9 National Awards of Merit

LOS ANGELES – The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) is a recipient of nine Awards of Merit from the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO). The NAHRO recognizes public housing agencies with innovative housing and community development projects, programs and services.

The programs recognized include:

- Housing America Campaign Los Angeles
- Moonlight Basketball @ Nickerson Gardens
- Summer of Success
- Water Conservation
- Green HACLA
- Back-to-School Health and Job Fair
- Helping your Eligibility Interviewer Video
- Permanent Supportive Housing Program
- Disposition to Maintain Affordable Units

( The first five programs are also nominated for the Award of Excellence.)

The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) is a state-chartered public agency. It provides the largest stock of affordable housing in Los Angeles and is one of the nation's leading public housing authorities. It is also one of the oldest, providing quality housing options and supportive services to the citizens of Los Angeles since 1938.
