EMPLOYEE DRESS CODE

Section 108:1801 GENERAL PROVISIONS

This chapter sets forth the Authority's policy regarding employee attire for all agency employees.

I. GENERAL POLICY

All Authority employees will dress in a manner appropriate to this dress code policy. Employees shall exercise good personal hygiene and grooming, and present a neat, professional appearance during working hours. Perfume, cologne, and makeup should be suitable for the business office. Employees will not wear garments that could interfere with his/her work responsibilities or constitute a safety hazard. Employees will not wear jewelry or clothing with logos/writing/embroidery that could be construed by a reasonable person as degrading, insulting, or vulgar and/or that have racial, sexual, inflammatory or explicit expressions on them.

An employee's religious beliefs or medical conditions, as defined by applicable law (i.e. Title 7, ADA, etc.) that require deviation from the standards as set forth herein, will be considered on an individual case by case basis.

II. EMPLOYEE DRESS CODE

All Authority employees shall follow the dress regulations contained in these sections:

Section 108:1802. MAINTENANCE SHOPS AND GROUND AREA

A. Acceptable Standards of Attire

1. Employees who have classifications (including but not limited to: maintenance workers and crew chiefs) that require a uniform shall wear the prescribed uniform for the position he/she holds within the Authority. No combination of civilian attire and official uniform will be permitted unless otherwise authorized. Shirts must be tucked in and uniforms must be neat, clean and in good repair. The uniform should also be size appropriate so as not to be too loose or too form fitting.

2. Employees who regularly visit construction sites (whether or not he or she wears the prescribed uniform), must comply with Cal OSHA Title 8 regulations regarding construction (for each respective trade) standards of attire and personal protection including but not limited to:

Office employees who carry and move boxes, equipment, supplies, etc., on a regular basis shall not wear open-toed shoes and must wear clothing that provides adequate coverage (i.e. shirts with sleeves, gloves where appropriate, etc.) so as to avoid injury. These are not just HACLA directives but also Cal OSHA requirements.

IV. ENFORCEMENT

It is the responsibility of all employees to use good judgment in determining his/her dress and appearance. Management is responsible for the consistent application of these rules and procedures. In the event that an employee has apparent difficulty in following this policy, Management with the help of Human Resources is expected to clarify the ambiguity. If the employee refuses to comply with the policy as clarified,
EMPLOYEE DRESS CODE

Management shall begin the progressive discipline process with oral counseling.

Depending upon the degree of inappropriateness, Management has the discretion to require the employee to make adjustments to their attire, or the employee may be sent home and directed to return to work within a reasonable time in appropriate attire. On the second or subsequent violation within one year, non-exempt employees will not be compensated for the time away from work. Any subsequent offenses within in one year may subject the employee to further progressive disciplinary action.

With the approval of Management, employees may be exempt from this policy during special work assignments or situations (i.e. an office move, during non-business hours or a department clean-up day).

All employees will be informed of the new HACLA Dress Code Policy and training will be provided.
