FEBRUARY 2020

Tenant Protection Act of 2019 (Assembly Bill No. 1482)

Effective January 1, 2020, California Law (Assembly Bill No. 1482 “Tenant Protection Act of 2019”), limits rent increases over the course of any 12-month period to 5% plus the percentage change in the cost of living or 10% whichever is lower. The Housing Authority has determined that the Tenant Protection Act of 2019 does apply to units that receive tenant based rental assistance.

This provision applies to all residential real properties not covered under the City’s Rent Stabilization Ordinance with a certificate of occupancy issued more than 15 (fifteen) years ago, and not otherwise subject to a specified exemption.

The Housing Authority will apply these provisions using a rent cap equal to 8.3% (5% plus 3.3% Consumer Price Index (CPI) April 2018 - April 2019) for assisted units with a certificate of occupancy issued after October 1, 1978 and on or before December 31, 2004. For assisted units built on January 1, 2005 or later, the rent cap provisions will apply on a continuous 15-year rolling basis.

For rent increases processed between March 15, 2019 and December 31, 2019 where the approved contract rent exceeded the maximum rent cap set a 8.3%, Section 8 Advisors must conduct an interim reexamination effective January 1, 2020. The revised contract rent will be the contract rent as of March 15, 2019, plus the maximum allowable 8.3% rent increase. The landlord is not liable to the Housing Authority or tenant for any rent overpayment made between March 15, 2019 and December 31, 2019.

If applicable, once revised rent calculations are completed:

- The Housing Authority will reimburse the tenant for any rent overpayment made to the landlord on or after January 1, 2020.
- The Housing Authority will recapture any HAP overpayment made to the landlord on or after January 1, 2020.

Some properties may be exempt from this law, for example single family residences, some condominiums, and duplexes (where owner occupies one of the units as their principal residence), unless it is owned by a corporation, a limited liability company that includes at least one member that is a corporation, or a real estate investment trust and notice is provided to the tenant that the unit is exempt. Some duplexes may also be exempt.

In these circumstances, the Housing Authority will rely on the landlord to provide the Housing Authority with a copy of the written notice sent to the tenant indicating that the property is exempt. The burden of proof fall on the landlord.

The Tenant Protection Act of 2019 will remain in effect until January 1, 2030.
